Evidence before this study
We searched PubMed, Scopus, and Google Scholar using the search terms ("spatial heterogeneity" OR "spatial distribution") AND ("intimate partner violence" OR "domestic violence" OR "physical violence" OR "emotional violence" OR "sexual violence") AND "districts" AND "small-area estimation" AND "India" for studies published from database inception to March 25, 2023, without language restrictions. No previous studies that are indexed in these databases have examined spatial heterogeneity in intimate partner violence (IPV) across the districts of India.

Small-area estimation was done with Stata version 16. LISA was estimated with GeoDa version 1.12.1.161.
